

Acknowledgments

The Highland Park Community Plan has been convened by the Highland Park Community Development Corporation in collaboration with the Highland Park Community Club and the East End Neighborhood Forum.

The Community Plan could not have been prepared without the residents and stakeholders of Highland Park who volunteered considerable time to attend town meetings and focus groups and shared their ideas and concerns about the future of Highland Park.

A special thank you to the Highland Park Planning Team members, Advisory Committee and Plan Volunteers:

Highland Park Planning Team

Michael Johnson, Director
Ruth Baldwin
Shelly Danko-Day
Patrick Dowd
Amy Enrico
Juanita Everett
David Hance
Jacqueline Jonas
Jessica King
Cristina Lagnese
Anne McCafferty
Dwayne Rawls
Shakura Sabur
Salvador Wilcox
Dell Ziegler

Plan Advisory Committee

Duane Ashley, Director, City of Pittsburgh Department of Parks and Recreation
Carl Cooper, Kirkpatrick and Lockhart, LLP
Tom Fallon, Office of State Senator Jim Ferlo
Jim Ferlo, State Senator, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
Maureen Hogan, Highland Park resident
Ellen Kight, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Dept of Economic Development
Anne Marie Lubenau, Executive Director, Community Design Center of Pittsburgh
Honorable Joseph Preston, Jr., State Representative, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
Reverend James Simms, Pastor, St. James Baptist Church
Rob Stephany, East Liberty Development, Inc.
Jason Vrable, Community Design Center of Pittsburgh

Plan Volunteers

Brenda Cole, Highland Park resident

Clara Pratte, H. John Heinz III School of Public Policy and Management, Carnegie Mellon University

Peter Muhlberger, H. John Heinz III School of Public Policy and Management, Carnegie Mellon University

Dave Wheatner, H. John Heinz III School of Public Policy and Management, Carnegie Mellon University

The Planning team would like to thank the following organizations for underwriting the community process and preparation of this plan:

City of Pittsburgh

National City Bank of Pennsylvania

Pennsylvania Department of Community and Economic Development

Pittsburgh Partnership for Neighborhood Development

The Pittsburgh Foundation

We would like to thank the following individuals, businesses and organizations for broad-based support of the community planning initiative:

- Reverend Bruce Robison and St. Andrew's Episcopal Church for hosting our town meetings and focus groups
- The City of Pittsburgh Department of Parks and Recreation for housing the Community Plan office in the newly renovated Highland Park Farmhouse
- Enrico's Tazza D'Oro for making a "home" for the community plan in the community and for providing refreshments throughout the process
- Ed D'Alessandro, Community Plan Coordinator, 1/1/02 – 1/31/03

Brean Associates

Karen Brean, Principal

7300 Penn Ave.

Pittsburgh, PA 15208

412-244-3445

karen@breanassociates.com